- Soft Skills: Teamwork • Analytical & Critical Thinking • Autonomy • Communication • Problem Solving

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Java Full Stack Software Engineer | Forterro – Casablanca, Morocco

September 2024 – Present

- Collaborate directly with customers to gather business requirements and translate them into functional and technical specifications for ERP modules.
- Design, develop, and maintain ERP features using Java/JEE, Spring Boot, PostgreSQL, and Angular.
- Develop modular Angular user interfaces and integrate secure REST APIs.
- Perform code reviews, write unit tests using JUnit and Mockito, and produce technical documentation.
- Contribute to CI/CD pipelines using GitLab CI/CD, Jenkins, and Maven, and containerize applications with Docker.
- Ensure application security by implementing Spring Security, OAuth2, and JWT authentication and authorization mechanisms.
- Contribute to an AI-powered project that automates customer purchase order integration into the ERP from PDF documents using OCR, Claude (Anthropic), and MyFoterro AI.
- Collaborate on prompt engineering initiatives to improve AI-driven extraction, interpretation, and structuring of business data.

Web Developer Intern (Final-Year Internship) | Forterro – Casablanca, Morocco

February 2024 – July 2024

- Analyzed industrial production processes and time-tracking challenges within the ERP solution.
- Designed and developed a Production Incident Management module to measure the impact of unexpected events (machine failures, production interruptions, and unplanned downtime) on manufacturing time.
- Implemented the complete solution using Spring Boot (Spring Data JPA) for the backend, Angular for the frontend, and PostgreSQL as the database.
